How Educators and Scholars Can Improve Policy*

* Potluck Brunch 11:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.

A popular tradition for many of us in and from Hawai'i is to gather, eat, and connect over a potluck meal, so what better way to begin our conference! Please feel free to bring a dish to share (if possible, also bring a list of ingredients). If you cannot bring a dish, please join us anyway because we will have a lot of food to share, including vegan and gluten-free options. You are also welcome to bring your own individual lunch and join us. Coffee, tea, and water will be available, but you are welcome to bring your own beverage and/or a reusable water bottle.

* Spotlight Panel 12:00 p.m. - 1:00 p.m.

*Moderator: William Ayers, Chicagoland Researchers and Advocates for Transformative Education (CReATE)
Christine Sleeter, California Alliance of Researchers for Equity in Education (CARE-ED)
David Stovall, Chicagoland Researchers and Advocates for Transformative Education (CReATE)
Lois Yamauchi, Hawai'i Scholars for Education and Social Justice (HSESJ)*

~ For Reflection: What does it mean for us to engage in movement building for equity and justice in education?

* Spotlight Speaker 1:00 p.m. - 1:30 p.m.

*Amy Perruso, Hawai'i State Representative, and former Secretary-Treasurer, Hawai'i State Teachers Association
Moderator: Jonathan Okamura, University of Hawai'i-Mānoa*
